Become Involved

Does the past interest you? We at the Historic Winslow House Association believe that we all have talents to share. Do you like to garden or arrange flowers? Perhaps you are a shutterbug. There is a place for you here.

Whether you become a trained docent and give tours of the house, or prefer to be a behind-the-scenes stalwart supporter, we value your time.

Join our energetic and diverse group of volunteers today!

Membership Rewards

The Historic Winslow House Association is administered by a volunteer Board of Governors and a director, each dedicated to preserving the house and historic National Register property.

Revenue is used to maintain and continue the costly restoration of the House. With your help, we can continue to keep alive the rich traditions of our past and provide quality educational programs for you and your family.

Support wears many hats. Please don yours and become a member!

Membership affords these exclusive benefits:

- ✳ Complimentary tours
- ✳ Discounts on workshops, lectures, events, and gift shop merchandise
- ✳ Early registration for all public programs
- ✳ Subscription to Careswell Chronicles
- ✳ Availability of tea room, barn, and grounds for function rental
- ✳ Access to on-site research library
