Workshops

Fathers are Free!
Sunday, June 16 11:30 a.m., 12:30 and 1:30 p.m.
 Bring your father for a complimentary tour of the House for Father's Day, our opening day! Pack a lunch and blanket; we will supply iced tea and lemonade for your picnic in the garden.

Teddy Bear Picnic
Wednesday, June 19 12:00–2:00 p.m.
 Ages 5+; $1/child (Must be accompanied by an adult.)
 Come with your Teddy and picnic lunch; we will provide the lemonade. The children, bears, and adults will parade through the grounds. Bring musical instruments, bubble wands, pin-wheels, banners, or other fun devices fit for our display, then settle on a spot to eat lunch and read stories.

History Course for Girls
Wednesday, July 10–Sunday, July 14 11:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m.
 Grades 7–8; $75 (Members); $100 (Non-Members)

Registration Required
 Experience the daily life of an 18th century girl during this hands-on experience. Learn to cross stitch and start a sampler as well as explore open hearth cooking, the herb garden, school life, and more. We will conclude with a costumed tea on Sunday.

Speaking Without Words
Wednesday, July 17 12:00–2:00 p.m.
 $8 (Members); $10 (Non-Members)
 Ladies of all ages carried a fan. From across a crowded room they could speak to each other without words. Join us as we make and decorate our own fans and learn the language.

Tussie Mussie Workshop for Young Ladies
Friday, July 19 11:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.
 Ages 7+; $8 (Members); $10 (Non-Members)
 Did you know that violets represent modesty and daffodils uncertainty? Make a dainty floral keepsake and learn the meanings of some herbs and flowers.

Home Life for Young Girls
Wednesday, July 24–Friday, July 26 11:00 a.m.–2:00 p.m.
 Grade 4; $60 (Members); $75 (Non-Members)
 A three-day workshop, we will try our hand at some of the old colonial crafts. Learn to weave on a loom, sew a simple hem stitch, and try knitting or lucet. Experience churning butter and baking a fruit tart. For entertainment, we will also sing weaving songs and play 18th century games.

Corn Cob and Corn Husk Dolls
Thursday, August 1 12:00–2:00 p.m.
 Ages 8+; $8 (Members); $10 (Non-Members)
 Craft with corn husks and cobs and make a doll to keep. All supplies are provided.

For those workshops requiring advance registration, contact Regina Porter at (781) 837-5753 as soon as possible. Limited participation on a first-come first-served basis.

Dolly Tea Party
Friday, August 2 12:00–2:00 p.m.
 Ages 5+; $8 (Members); $10 (Non-Members)
 Put on your party clothes and bring your favorite doll for a Dolly Tea Party. Tea and lemonade, cucumber sandwiches, and sweet treats will be served. After our refreshments we will talk about the history of dolls.

Simple Sewing
Thursday, August 8 12:00–2:00 p.m.
 Ages 8+; $8 (Members); $10 (Non-Members)
 Join us as we make a handkerchief decorated with lace or tiny buttons. Participants must be able to thread a needle and know the simple hem stitch. All supplies are provided.

Colonial Games and Sports
Friday, August 9 12:00–2:00 p.m.
 Ages 5+; $8 (Members); $10 (Non-Members)
 Playing games in early America taught children to follow rules, wait their turn, use their imaginations, while improving physical dexterity. Join us as we play simple renditions of these games!

School Days
Thursday, August 15 12:00–2:00 p.m.
 Ages 7+; $8 (Members); $10 (Non-Members)
 In Colonial America there were few schools. Students of all ages learned in the same room from one teacher. As we go through some of the 'three R's,' we will write with a quill pen and ink, recite simple passages, and do some ciphering.

What's in a Name?
Thursday, September 12 12:00–2:00 p.m.
 $10 (Members); $12 (Non-Members)
 Have you wondered about the significance of your street name? Audrey McKeever will share her knowledge and answer your questions. Bring a bag lunch and enjoy iced tea and dessert!

Open Hearth Cooking/Fireside Chat—"Before the War"
Friday, September 13 7:00–8:30 p.m.
 $10 (Members); $12 (Non-Members) Reservations Required
 18th century summertime dinner faire consisted of herbs, vegetables, white meats, dairy, and fish. Assist your host in preparing a spinach tansy and poached fish with a delicate wine and herb sauce in the hearth over the fire. Recipes will be available. During your meal, discuss 1775 life and political concerns with Dr. Isaac Winslow, played by Michael LePage.
