COFFEE SERIES

“DANIEL WEBSTER: AMONG FRIENDS AT AGAWAM”.

Tuesday Lynda Byrne

July
13 The old Swift Inn at Agawam Village (East Wareham) was once the home of industrialist Samuel Tisdale, who entertained friends such as Daniel Webster and Professors Louis Agassiz and Jeffries Wyman. Learn about recently discovered letters and tributes to each other that attest to their shared interest of hunting, fishing, and natural history.

“THE WAR OF 1812 IN 1814: PANIC AND DESTRUCTION ON THE SOUTH COAST”.

Tuesday Kathy Pillsbury

July
27 Enemy activity along the coast during the War of 1812 severely affected Massachusetts shipping and trade. Ms. Pillsbury, Duxbury town historian and author of many recent historical works, will explore the war's final year and its little-known effects on our coastal towns.
